Proposed Change to Rules
Continued from April 29, 2015 Hearing

1. Director of Somerville Cares about Prevention Cory Mashburn and Assistant City Solicitor Jason Grossfield submitting Proposed Amendment to the Licensing Commission Rules and Regulations regarding the Sale of “Nips”.

To insert the following paragraph:

“Nips”

Licensees shall not offer for sale “nips” (defined as a bottle of spirits containing fewer than 51mls or 1.72 ounces) from a location within the premises that may be accessed directly by customers. “Nips” may be offered for sale only upon the request of a customer from a location within the premises to which customers do not have direct access, such as from behind a counter. Sales are permitted of prepackaged “50 ml gift sets” or value added packages (VAP), which contain 50mls of spirits in a closed package coupled with a spirit greater than 101mls.
